

ECDI: Early Child Development Index Full Profile Review

Generated: 2024-12-01 10:46:08

Name of the measure

ECDI: Early Child Development Index

Author(s) / Publisher(s)

- English original (US):

<https://data.unicef.org/resources/early-childhood-development-index-2030-ecdi2030/>

Author: D. McCoy, E. Peet, M. Ezzati, G. Danaei, M. Black, C. Sudfeld, W. Fawzi, & G. Fink.

Publisher: UNICEF

Age Range

0-3 years, 3-7 years

Age Range Information

24 months to 59 months

SEL Skills targeted

Relationship skills, Self-management, Behaviour problems

Scales and Subscales

Early Child Development Index has a total of 20 items:

Learning;

Expressive language;

Numeracy;

Literacy;

Pre-writing;

Executive functioning;

Health:

Self-care;

Gross motor;

Fine motor;

Psychosocial well-being:

Emotional skills;

Social skills;

Mental health;

Externalizing;

Internalizing.

Sources of information

Parent

Formats for administration

Questionnaire

Administration

Individual, 3 minutes

Scoring

Training

Interviewers must be trained.

Other Relevant Information

<https://mics.unicef.org/>

Citation

This document was generated from the database used to create the Assessment Measures Compendium:

Koltcheva, N., C. Peixoto, V. Coelho, (2022). Social and Emotional Competences and Development of Children Aged Zero to Seven: European Assessment Measures Compendium. EU-SELF Project. ISBN 978-619-233-217-4 (can be downloaded from <https://euself.nbu.bg>)